

History

With a tradition of care that began in 1967 and continues today, Ochsner St. Anne General Hospital serves as the foundation of healthcare service delivery in Lafourche and the surrounding parishes. As a not-for-profit acute care facility in Raceland, Louisiana, our 35-bed hospital provides a growing range of high quality, cost effective emergency services, medical services, surgical care, obstetric, skilled nursing, home health, and behavioral health services. Our patient population ranges from pediatrics to the geriatric community.

Patients of Ochsner St. Anne are served by a staff representing several medical specialties and supported by a professional nursing staff, hospital support staff, and a progressive Administrative Leadership team.
